SHERIDAN, WYOMING

DONALD LEGERSKI
DSA 2016 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Farm Bureau Insurance and Financial

Dave Craft, Agent

Dave chose to leave his family business (Craftco Metals Inc) and open up his own Insurance office at 134 S Main. A hometown boy, Dave loves being in the heart of historic downtown Sheridan. He has supported the DSA efforts to enhance, preserve & promote downtown by volunteering on the 3rd Thursday Street Festival. He and his brothers run the sound at every event and are a local favorite band at the event!

Weston Wineries

Jessica Fleenor.

Weston Wineries tasting room and wine club opened it's doors at 122 N Main in July. Proudly cellaring and bottling wines from North America, they carry a variety of red, white and mead wines. Decorated in style, the beautiful tasting room is open Tuesday through Saturday 4pm – 9pm.

Green Boomerang

(Owned by The Sheridan Senior Center)

Amanda Munford

A thrift store that benefits the Sheridan Senior Center, The Green Boomerang moved to 226 N Main Street last February. They certainly like their new location as they were able to expand and have benefited from the busy foot traffic of our historic downtown Sheridan!

A Place to
Drop & Shop

Big Horn Technologies IT Services

Corbin Abernatha

Corbin started his business in 2013. Providing a wide scope of comprehensive IT services ranging from computer support to network design and implementation. He is committed to providing a level of service and support that is unrivaled in the Information Technology industry!

Flowers on Main Street

CPG Engineering Civil Engineer & Surveying

Jill Rosselot & Ben Wealier

Jill & Ben started the company in 2016. At 52 S. Main Street, they love the convenience and close proximity to the vibrant downtown restaurants and retail businesses. Jill & Ben are working hard to grow their business.

WYO Thai

(Owned by the Sheridan Senior Center)

Jack and Heidi Cherachat

Jack and Heidi open their food truck in June of 2016. They serve and deliver Thai & Asian food. They are always looking toward the future and hope to have a pedal cart next year to better serve the downtown businesses.

Kona Ice of Big Horn

Troy & Elizabeth Cochran

Troy and Elizabeth started their business in May of 2016. They drive the Kona Truck all over Big Horn, Sheridan, Dayton and Ranchester. Always on the go, they participated in our 3rd Thursday Street Festivals and were a sponsor of the annual Goose Creek Polo Cup at the Flying H Polo Club, which helped raise over $15,000 to benefit the DSA's efforts to enhance, preserve and promote our beautiful downtown.

Silver Spur Cafe

Michelle Underwood

Michelle's grandmother owned the building/business before she sold it to the previous owners. Michelle jumped at the opportunity to purchase this historic building/business back. The 5 star restaurant is a favorite of locals and tourists alike.

Sheridan Bicycle Co.

Dave Carter & Jordan LeDuc

Dave & Jordan opened the business last year on Brundage, then bought the old Quick Printing Building at 43 S. Main. With this major investment, the business continues to grow and we expect to see great things from these two business partners!

Big Horn Design Studio

PJ Treide

Big Horn Design continues to grow they are now in three locations downtown doing screen printing, embroidery, signage, photo printing and retail. They enjoy being downtown for the tourist, and opportunities.

Curl up & Dye

Heather Peterson & Melissa Bryant

Heather has owned Curl Up & Dye for over 16 years. This year Melissa became a co-owner. Conveniently located in the heart of downtown at 142 N. Main Street, they both hope to continue to grow and expand the business.

Farmer's Market

Expressions

Ryan & Wanda Kerns

Ryan and Wanda purchased Davis Gallery at 645 Broadway in June of 2016. The new name and management style is their way of attracting local artists to frame and display their wonderful artwork. The location is spacious, well lit and has convenient parking!

Cowboy State Bank

Sam Summers, President

Cowboy State Bank moved into their new location on Grinnell in Whitney Plaza this past February. The building is beautiful and Sam and his staff enjoy being closer to downtown.

Sheridan Workforce Services & Wyoming Family Services

Linda Orchard & Jeff Bell

The State of Wyoming built a beautiful new facility in the heart of Whitney Plaza. We are thrilled to have the Sheridan Workforce and Wyoming Family Services together in one spot! Adding the Worker's Comp and Vocational Rehab departments is a convenience for them and has added eight new positions in our downtown.

Shiver Shack

Colton & Kelsee Thompson

The Thompsons opened the Shiver Shack in May of 2016. Most of the summer they were located on the south east corner of Scott Street & Brundage. The lines to purchase their icy treats were long at the 3rd Thursday Street Festival! We are looking forward to seeing them again next year...hopefully a little closer to Main Street.

Sheridan Optical

Dr. Joseph Katschke

When Groshart Eye Care decided that it was time to retire, Dr. Katschke & Adrian of Wyovision decided to purchase the business. Sheridan Optical is currently open two days a week. They like being part of downtown and hope to be open five days a week soon.

Wyoming Corporate Office

Leanne Moss, Office Manager

Wyoming Corporate Office open it's door in November of 2015. They provide corporate filings for businesses in Wyoming. They hope to grow in the next few years. They love being a part of our lovely downtown!

Escapade

Travis Parker

Travis opened Escapade in May of 2016. Escapade brings people together to explore themed rooms for clues, solve puzzles, investigate mysteries before the clock runs out. Travis would like to have a bigger location down the road where can and adjust and have different theme rooms.

The games are by appointment only, for reservations go to www.escapadewyo.com

Captain Clean

Dan Marshall

When David Oakes decided that it was time to retire Dan Marshall jumped into the opportunity to purchase Captain Clean in Spring of 2016.

Wicked Smoke

Joon Kee Kim

The Kim family opened their food truck business in May of 2016. They serve smoked meats and Korean food. They enjoy being close to Main Street and are hoping to expand their menu in the coming years.

3rd Thursday

Café Coda

Alfredo Coda

Alfredo opened his restaurant late last year. He has a small menu featuring his favorite daily signature specials. Alfredo really likes his location and would like to expand into the space next door.

The Old General Store

Luke Knudson

Luke Knudson opened The Old General Store this summer. Thirteen year old Luke has an entrepreneurial spirit and is a collector of antiques. He hooked up with Steve & Shannon Kuzara to rent the space in their newly renovated Bar W building at 249 N. Main Street. With Steve's construction savvy and Luke's keen eye for a bargain, this new business is sure to thrive!

Cowboy Café

Robert & Severine Murdoch

Cowboy Cafe is an anchor restaurant downtown. The Murdoch's remodeled both inside and outside this past summer enhancing both the business as well as our beautiful downtown with outside patio seating.

No Name Bar

Tyler Bennett

Tyler took over ownership in the summer of 2016. A place to hangout and a lovely atmosphere for the locals.

Goose Creek Polo Cup
