Offering Samples

Offering samples is permitted and encouraged during the 3rd Thursday Street Festival as long as they are offered in a sanitary manner (please discuss this in detail with your local food licensing representative).

Please use the following precautions if you plan to offer food samples:

- Keep samples in clean, covered containers.
- Vendors should wear hairnets/hats and use clean, disposable gloves for distributing food samples.
- Use toothpicks or disposable utensils to distribute the samples.
- Dispose of pits, peels, food waste and rubbish in a leak-proof garbage can.
- Wash and clean produce. Have a hand washing station available for booth workers.
- Utensils and cutting surfaces must be cleaned and sanitized.
- Vendors will be responsible for cleaning up after themselves.
- No disbursement of alcoholic beverage samples is allowed.

Electrical Services

- Grinnell Plaza will be where the main power sources are located. Power will be assigned on a first come basis, by registration and payment dates.
- Power is very limited and you must follow fire code procedures-see attached fire code procedures.
- No generators allowed without prior approval.
- Any vendor using multiple appliances must have them plugged into a breaker protected power strip, using the proper extension cord that is plugged into the provided 110. Vendors that require 220 power will be charged $220.00.

Displays/Signage

- The 3rd Thursday Street Festival Committee reserves the right to disapprove any display.
- Professionally made or computer generated signs are encouraged; handwritten signage is permitted if done neatly and if it does not detract from the overall appearance of the event.
- If using a tent or canopy for shade, you must have it anchored down with weighted anchors, such as sandbags or cement bags.

Selling of Products

All prices, terms of sale, etc. are between buyer and seller only. Vendors may not sell any items not approved or shown in their event application. Event staff has the right to ask vendor to remove any unapproved items from their booth. Any required sales tax collections and remittances are the sole responsibility of the seller. Seller assumes full liability for the products they market or sell and hereby agree to hold the 3rd Thursday Street Festival harmless against any claim of injury, or damage by any buyer, seller, or other persons resulting from the use, consumption, disposition, display, or marketing of seller's products.

Non-Discrimination

Sheridan and the 3rd Thursday Street Festival welcomes all regardless of race, creed, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation, age, nationality or marital status.

Special Events & Entertainment

To enhance the event and to provide added value for our customers, we will seek to schedule various forms of entertainment and activities throughout the event. These have proven to add to the overall atmosphere of the event. We welcome your suggestions or ideas for special events or entertainment.

On-site Security and Indemnification

3rd Thursday Street Festival Committee, and any of its associates or affiliates, are not financially liable for losses or damages of any kind. The aforementioned parties are not responsible for any injury, theft, or damage to either the buyer or seller, or their property arising out of or pertaining to preparation for or participation in the 3rd Thursday Street Festival; whether such injury, theft or damage occurred prior, during, or after the event. Seller further agrees to indemnify and hold the aforementioned parties harmless of any claims for such injury, theft, or damage.

SHERIDAN FIRE-RESCUE

FIRE AND LIFE SAFETY REQUIREMENTS FOR OUTDOOR EVENTS

- Tents, canopies, and similar membrane structures shall be adequately roped, braced, and anchored to withstand the elements of weather and prevent collapse.
- Open flame devices, gas and charcoal grills, and other flame emitting devices shall not be operated within 10 feet of tents, canopies, or similar membrane structures.
